At the Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association will observe today with a program for all day with six divisions, as follows:

At 7 this morning a Thanksgiving prayer service will be held for thirty minutes, after which a breakfast will be served to those present at the service. All members of the association are urged to attend this early morning service.

At 10:30 a. m. the regular Thanksgiving meeting for boys of the junior department and boys' gospel army will take place. All the members of the department and army are expected to attend in full force. All boys, whether members or not, are invited, but only those holding membership cards will be admitted to the social which follows the meeting. This social promises to be a very unique affair, and will afford the boys more fun than they have had for a long time. The principal event will be the "Hall of the Five Senses, or the Mysterious Room of Surprises." The social will last one hour. Boys are requested to bring their membership card in either junior department or the boys' gospel army.

In the afternoon at 4 o'clock the juniors will give an exhibition in the gymnasium, which will be the best event of the kind yet given. Parents are specially invited to be present. It is not necessary to have a card of admission. Everyone admitted free and cordially welcome.

At 8 p. m. there will be held in the gymnasium a match game of basketball by the seniors for the grown folks. No children admitted. All adults are cordially invited to witness this game, and will be very well paid by the expected enjoyment. The game of basketball is one of interest for both players and spectators from beginning to end. The ladies as well as the men go wild with delight when watching a game in progress. Come and bring your friends.

A concert will be given in the hall at 9 p. m. immediately following the basketball game, to which all members and their friends, either ladies or gentlemen, are cordially invited. The Association Mandolin and Guitar club will play several selections and Miss Lee Eure, of the Boston Conservatory, will recite. This will be a treat that none can fall to miss. Following the concert the Thackeray Literary and Debating society will discuss the subject of the 20th century girl under the following subject: "Resolved, That the 20th Century Girl is a Delusion and a Snare." Adults are invited to come to the basketball game at 8 p. m. and spend the evening. The reception committee will do all in their power to make the evening one of complete enjoyment.

CROWDS AT THE BAZAAR.

FATHER BRADY, OF PORTSMOUTH, WON THE STOLE CONTEST.

There was another large crowd at the St. Vincent bazaar last night. The contest for the stole for the most popular priest was won by Father Brady, of Portsmouth. Father Doherty, of St. Mary's church here, was defeated. The next contest is that for a bath robe to be given to the physician who shall receive the highest number of votes. That will be closed to-night at 8 o'clock, when all the books are expected to be in.

The feature of to-night's bazaar will be the fancy dancing by the girls and boys who have been taught by Prof. A. Bellezza.

The watch case contest is still in progress. That is to be decided on Friday night, and many of the young and pretty girls are waging a lively contest for it.

Races To-Day.

There will be two races to-day, pacing and trotting, at the State Fair grounds, the entries being horses owned by colored lovers of speedy equines. The purse will be $100. The horse distancing the field will get one money. Mr. John Mariner has kindly consented to appoint suitable starters and timers. The track is in fine shape and great sport is expected. Among the entries are Happy Girl, Money Bag, Old Skipper, Tom Watson, Sixth Virginia, Black Rest, Catty Crowling, Sport and Beatrice.

NEGRO ROBBER HELD.

Mrs. Murphy Did Not Appear Against William Williams.

Ferry Company Seeks More Room - Verdict of $2,500 Against the Street Railway - Suit Against a Tea Agent - Divorces - Princess Anne Court.

William Williams, colored, was arraigned before Justice Taylor yesterday for trial on the charge of highway robbery and housebreaking. His case was continued to December 3.

The only witness who appeared against Williams was Thomas Perry, who saw the accused attack Mrs. Murphy. Mrs. Murphy was unable to appear, being, it was reported, too nervous to appear in court. The absence of the chief witness caused the hearing to be set for a future day.

Williams is charged with having attacked Mrs. Murphy in Brambleton in the street and choked her in an effort to take the purse she carried. Williams is suspected also of having broken into a residence in Norfolk several days ago.

The police say he is a desperate man, and it is anticipated that if he is convicted, which it appears he is likely to be, he will suffer severely.

FERRY SEEKS ROOM.

Judge Prentiss was engaged in the circuit court yesterday hearing a case in which Duke & Adams seek to obtain possession of a strip of land at the Norfolk ferry dock, leased to them by the board of supervisors of Norfolk county ten years ago.

Petitioners seek to compel County Clerk Alvah H. Martin to put the seal of the county to a lease of some of the ferry property executed in 1890. The property in question is between Nivison and Water streets, in Norfolk. The claim is that the increasing traffic of the ferry, in consequence of the shorter trips of 12 minutes to be inaugurated, necessitates more room than the ferry has now.

GRESSETT AWARDED $2,500.

The trial of the $5,000 damage suit of J. H. Gressett, of Atlantic City ward, against the Norfolk Railway and Light company for injuries sustained while alighting from a street car, was tried before Judge Martin and a jury in the court of law and chancery yesterday.

The jury returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $2,500 damages. Counsel for the defendant moved for a new trial.

JONES BROS. SUE CARTER.

Jones & Brothers, of the Union Tea company, have a suit in the law and chancery court against W. J. Carter, employed to sell and deliver tea. They allege that he owes $318 on a contract. He set up an off-set of $416. The case was tried before a jury yesterday afternoon.

TWO DIVORCE SUITS.

Albert Shultz has brought suit in the court of law and chancery for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Maud Shultz. They were married in Philadelphia June 4th, 1884, and moved to Norfolk a year later. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant deserted him January 11th, 1892, and has not since returned.

John Fentress brought suit in the court of law and chancery for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Alice Fentress. The bill has not been filed.

PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY COURT.

The November term of the Princess Anne county court will begin Monday. A large number of civil matters and one or two criminal cases will be heard during the term. There will be no grand jury until the January term of court.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Mary E. Wagner, of Baltimore, to Kate Guider, an individual molly in a lot on the west side of Maple avenue, Brambleton ward; $1,000.

Frank R. Berryman, to Southgate Leigh, lot fronting 25 feet on Mowbray Arch, Ribble place; $2,500.

James B. Wright to Southgate Leigh, lot fronting 25 feet on Mowbray Arch; $2,800.

George W. Dey et als., trustees, to Sallie O. Britton, lot with improvements on Mallory avenue, Atlantic City ward; $650.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

George Smith, colored, suspected of stealing a bell; continued until December 4th.

Maggie Hopkins and Fanetta Ash, both colored, abusive language; fined $7.25.

Alberta Wright and Martha Purvis, both colored, fighting; fined $12.25 each.

F. H. Chiner, disorderly conduct; fined $4.25.

William Morton, colored, felonious cutting; dismissed.

William Gaskins, colored, stealing whiskey from W. P. Ives & Co.; ninety days in jail.

Movement of Troops.

The transport Rawlins is expected to reach Hampton Roads on December 4th or 5th. Among the troops on board there are about ten officers and 287 men who will be sent from this port to Fort McPherson, Ga. A special train, including Pullman and tourist sleepers, will be provided.

Won the Orator's Medal.

A special from Hampden-Sidney College, Va., in the Richmond Times of yesterday says: "The senior orators' medal in the Union society has been awarded to Mr. Porter Young Johnson, of Norfolk, Va."

JUVENILE ACTORS.

TWO BIG AUDIENCES AT ST. MARY'S HALL YESTERDAY.

There were two large audiences at St. Mary's Hall, on Holt street, yesterday afternoon and last night to witness the entertainment given by pupils of St. Mary's Male Academy. Mr. E. H. Cunningham sang very sweetly that beautiful and popular song, entitled "I Love You in the Same Old Way." This pleased the audience so well that Mr. Cunningham was forced to respond to an encore, and sang "My Sweet Irish Maid," which was also well received.

It would be very difficult to specify all the best features, as every number was good and won deserved applause. The work of "The Little Orators" was very amusing and was the beginning of the fun that was to follow. Master John P. McGuire, who played the part of Andy and Sam Snow, did it in the old veteran style, as did also Masters J. Lawler as Harry, a medical student; H. Hogan as The Ghost, and H. O'Connor as Red Skin. The rendition of the solo, entitled "Mother, Take Me Home Again," by little Vincent Lawler, was indeed very pretty and won long and continuous applause at both afternoon and night performances.

The following is the program in full:

1. Piano Solo ..... Selected
2. Opening Chorus ..... "Greeting Glee"
3. Prologue ..... "Educational Critics"
4. Recitation and Chorus - "The Drum Major of Schneider's Band"
5. Little Orators - D. Fitzgibbon, E. Ryan, J. Furlong, E. Murray.
6. "The Little Boaters" - J. Santos, A. Brewer.
7. Recitation ..... "Our Baby"
8. A Farce in One Act - "Handy Andy" - J. McGuire
9. Recitation ..... "Minot's Ledge" - F. McCourt.
10. Chorus ..... "College Song" - Vocal Class.
11. Recitation - "Crossing the Railroad" - E. Hogan
12. Solo - "Mother, Take Me Home Again" - V. Lawler
13. Recitation - "Three Days in the Life of Columbus" - H. Hogan
14. A Farce in Two Acts - "The Deserters" - J. McGuire
15. Recitation (with Music) - "The Dying Singer" - R. Keys

Jim Runaway, Deserter - H. Hogan
Davy Fearful, Deserter - E. Hogan
Max Killgast, An unhappy man - F. Greenwell
Ned, Servant - W. Douglas
Tom, Servant - F. Barry
Bob, Servant - W. Walsh
Janos Poulitce, a doctor - W. Johnson
Harry, his son, a medical student - J. Lawler
Sam Snow, Harry's servant - J. McGuire
Crusty Colic, one of Dr. Poulitce's patients - J. Long
Charles Faithful, a police officer - J. King
Miles Diligent, detective in search of D. Fearful - W. Greenwell
Jim Runaway, Deserter - H. Hogan
Red Skin - H. Connor
15. Recitation (with Music) - "The Dying Singer" - R. Keys

The music was under the direction of Mr. Edward J. Doran. The entertainment may be repeated in the near future.

At the Union Mission.

There will be a thanksgiving service at the Union Mission, 106 Church street, to-day. Supper from 6 to 8. Praise services 8 to 10, led by Mr. Lee Guy, of Freemason Street Baptist Church. Mr. Wm. W. Widditt, of the First Presbyterian Church, will sing "Holy City." Mrs. Watts and ladies from Portsmouth will sing sweet gospel songs. All will be welcomed.

Southern Earnings.

The estimated earnings of the Southern railway system for the third week of November are: This year, $674,962; an increase of $6,599.

CURED AS SOUND AS A DOLLAR.

Emaciated, Pale and Badly Run Down by Catarrh!

HE IS ENTIRELY WELL NOW

Mr. Gorley says: I WAS BADLY RUN DOWN LAST SPRING AND SUMMER BY CATARRH OF THE NOSE THROAT AND STOMACH. I WAS SO PALE THAT MY COMPLEXION WAS JUST THE COLOR OF WHITE WAX, AND NO ONE COULD TELL JUST BY LOOKING AT ME THAT I WAS A VERY SICK MAN. AT THAT TIME I WAS EMPLOYED AS A TRAVELING SALESMAN AND I CONSULTED MANY PHYSICIANS IN THE VARIOUS CITIES I VISITED. MORE THAN A DOZEN DOCTORS IN DANVILLE, LYNCHBURG, STAUNTON, CUMBERLAND, MD., AND NORFOLK, TRIED THEIR SKILL ON MY CASE, BUT I ONLY WENT FROM BAD TO WORSE. PAID OUT OVER A HUNDRED DOLLARS IN FEES, BUT WITHOUT BENEFIT. THEY DID NOT SEEM TO REMEDY MY AILMENT OR WHAT TO DO TO REMEDY MY TROUBLE. IF I HAD BEEN STAYING IN NORFOLK I WOULD HAVE CONSULTED DR. FIFEY AT ONCE, BUT BEING ON THE ROAD I TRIED OTHERS AND DID NOT GO TO HIM UNTIL I HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE OF GETTING RELIEF ELSEWHERE. UNDER DR. FIFEY'S TREATMENT I BEGAN TO IMPROVE AT ONCE AND PROGRESSED STEADILY UNTIL NOW AFTER A COUPLE OF MONTHS' TREATMENT I FEEL AS WELL AS I EVER DID IN MY LIFE. I HAVE KNOWN DR. FIFEY TEN YEARS AND KNOW THAT HE IS A SKILLFUL PHYSICIAN AND CONSCIENTIOUS ATTENDING WHOM I GIVE THE PLEASURE TO RECOMMEND TO THOSE NEEDING HIS SERVICES.

A. L. GORLEY, 419 Clay Avenue, Brambleton—now employed at the Navy Yard.

Rooms 2 and 4 No. 174 Main street, over "The Hub." Specialties—CATARRH and all diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Chest and Stomach.

Hours: 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. Sunday hours, 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Tuesday night, Thursday night and Saturday night, 7:45 p. m. to 8:45 p. m.

CONSULTATION ALWAYS FREE. Medicines furnished. Terms moderate. Eyes examined for glasses free of charge.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mr. M. Fass, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fass, on Washington street.

Through letters sent to the employing printers of Birmingham, Ala., by Mr. John E. Burke, of Norfolk, secretary of the United Typothetae of America, the former on Monday formed a local branch of the organization. The employing printers of that city have been bothered by a strike inaugurated last week, but advice received in Norfolk to-day indicate that the situation is much relieved and that normal conditions will be speedily restored. The employers are fast filling the places left vacant by the strikers, and the latter will have to secure work elsewhere.

Mr. J. D. Potts, assistant general passenger agent of the C. & O. Ry., was in the city yesterday in connection with the removal of the city ticket office to the Hamilton building, corner City Hall avenue and Granby street, which will occur about January 1st.

Pistol Target Practice.

The line officers of the First Battalion will have a pistol target practice to-day. This battalion is in command of Major T. J. Nottingham. They will go to Ocean View at 10:30 this morning and spend the day there in target practice and roasted oyster consumption.

The battalion includes the three Norfolk companies and the company from Franklin. That company has been invited to join, as well as a few guests of the city. The party will go by special conveyance, as the service of the railway, because of the recent fire, might not be satisfactory.

Barbara Fretchie.

Appropos of the presentation here to-night of the dramatization of Clyde Fitch's novel "Barbara Fretchie" it might be well to state that the book itself is at present having a large sale in this city. Life Publishing company, of New York city, have gotten out a very pretty edition of the work in the dramatized form, giving the production stage, with all the incidental remarks to complete its work. It is well illustrated by photographs of Julia Marlowe and different scenes of the play. (Nussbaum's, Granby street.)
